Endorsement Form Instructions

As part of the nomination process, all candidates are required to collect endorsements from eligible students. Endorsements serve as a demonstration of student support for a candidate's nomination and help ensure that those running for office have a base of support within the student body.

Candidates for Executive Chair must obtain 20 signatures from any full-time Durham College post-secondary students.

Candidates for Faculty Director positions must obtain 10 signatures from students within the faculty they seek to represent.

If you are submitting your nomination package online, please either scan and submit this document into your online nomination form or submit just this form to the DCSA Office. If you are submitting your document in person to the DCSA Office, then you must submit this along with the attached nomination form.
